MOUNT OLIVE ACTS TEAM UPDATE

The Mount Olive ACTS team recently disbursed gifts to help grow God's ministry to several partners. Each month we will highlight a recipient in order to bring awareness to how the memorial from Dorothy Gollmar's estate is being used to spread God's love.

Who is Breaking the Chains Church:

The Greater Milwaukee Synod (GMS) of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) has worked closely with Prison Congregations of America to develop a Lutheran congregation inside the Wisconsin Department of Corrections (DOC) facility. This ministry is known as Breaking the Chains Church (BtCC).

Under the current pastoral leadership of Rev. David Rebey, Breaking the Chains Church is worshipping regularly with an average of seven or eight residents and eight to ten Greater Milwaukee Synod congregation members at every worship. Thanks to virtual meetings, Breaking the Chains has been able to maintain weekly worship at a relatively high level of interaction and a sense of community.

How Does Breaking the Chains Church Help?

Prison gives one a lot of time to read, to ponder and to pray. During a conversation about how God calls each one of us, based on the Matthew 5 text of Jesus calling the first disciples, several men wondered aloud if they are heeding God's call at this time in their lives. It is obvious from the Biblical narrative that God chooses people of all types of backgrounds, from pious Gentiles to rebellious Israelites, to everyday, working-class people.

The men inside the Felmers Chaney Correctional Center in Kenosha have made big mistakes in their lives, sometimes catastrophic. For many, this leads them to now want to follow what God would have them do. Worrying about all of this led to one man sharing this statement, "I do not want to be disqualified from God's love." Breaking the Chains Church is providing a place for the love and grace of God to be reaffirmed in the lives of believers who are desperately seeking Jesus, Praise be to God for this ministry of the Greater Milwaukee Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America.

What Can MTO do to Help?

Breaking the Chains group welcomes volunteers in some aspects of the ministry such as attendance and participation in weekly worship and mid-week bible class. Volunteers are required to take the Dept. of Corrections training before they are permitted to participate in activities inside a correction institution. There are other activities outside the institution such as nurturing congregations to see prison ministry as part of their congregational ministry.

I invite you to come at any of these following times for this prayer opportunity (schedule of dates & times below). Crafted in Christ - a summer of rest and renewal
by the Rev. Katie Hines-Shah

For summer 2022, participants will enjoy a three-session Bible study that uses the concept of quilting to explore rest, renewal and Christian community. We'll discuss Old and New Testament readings as we consider the patterns we follow and how the pieces of our lives and communities are bound together in Christ. While no actual sewing experience is required to complete the study, participants can opt to create a quilting project as a lasting reminder of their time together.

August 2022, Session 3: "Ties that bind," examines how God invites us to commit to a new way of life with God and with each other. Come along and see, join in the conversation! No preparation necessary!

IN SEARCH OF FELLOWSHIP HOUR PROVIDERS!

Have you missed the fellowship time following worship? Would you be willing to prepare coffee (coffee supplies provided), bring some treats, juice, and clean up afterward? If so, please let the Mount Olive office know. If we have a large enough coffee fellowship team, we can begin scheduling now that the Omicron wave of COVID has subsided.

WORSHIP MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES ABOUND AT MOUNT OLIVE!

Might you be interested in helping to lead worship as an AV operator, assisting minister, reader, usher, altar guild, or in other roles?

PRAYING FOR MEMBERS at Mount Olive Lutheran Church

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone. I Timothy 2:1

It seems to me that no one is so poor as an individual for whom not a single soul is praying, and has no one who takes him or her personally and persistently to God in prayer. O. Hallesby, Prayer “Praying for Every Member” is sponsored by Prayer Ministry. By using this monthly newsletter insert, we will pray unceasingly for each other.
