COUNCIL CORNER

Growing up my brothers and I always knew we had good parents. Mom was very sweet yet the disciplinarian. Dad was easy going and active in the community. My brothers still teased me that I was the spoiled child. I really wasn't spoiled, but they now admit they were jealous because I had my own bedroom and the four of them had to share a bedroom. I never thought I was spoiled but always knew I was Daddy's little girl. Dad taught us the rules of camping, fishing, and running a business. We lovingly gave him the nickname, "The King." One time a friend said to me, "You have Ozzie and Harriet for parents," but back then I thought everybody did. I tried to be a good kid and never wanted to disappoint my dad.

When I was a freshman in high school an incident happened in East Troy that opened everyone's eyes to what family violence was and what it could result in. Then I really knew how blessed I was that God gave me the perfect parents to raise me.

After graduating from college and working down south, I decided I was moving on in life with what I wanted to do. I told my parents my plans, and they were both very upset. As I was leaving their house, my mom was yelling at me, and my dad was sitting in his recliner with his head in his hands sobbing. I felt terrible that I had hurt them both so badly. By the grace of God within six months all was good again. My parents had forgiven me, and our relationship was restored.

Ten years later I was living in Dallas, married with two children. One Sunday our pastor's sermon was on God's love for us. He said our Heavenly Father loves us even when we do things to disappoint Him. Later that afternoon it hit me...if I hurt my earthly father that much that he was sobbing, think how much I hurt my Heavenly Father! I was overwhelmed by the goodness and forgiveness in God's love. Many years have passed now, but I thank God everyday for His perfect Fatherly love of an imperfect child.

"God loves you like a papa." Pope Francis

In Christ who unites us,
Linda Burie
Secretary, Mount Olive Church Council

CALL COMMITTEE PROCESS AND STATUS REPORT

Nine months ago, we finalized our Ministry Site Profile and transitioned our search for a Pastor to the Call Committee. The Call Committee has met regularly during this time. We interviewed four candidates from an array of demographics. We know that God will provide the best candidate in God's own time; so we asked ourselves how we can actively wait, and the answer came clearly – by praying as a church. The Call Committee would like to ask each of you to pray the prayer below, to let the Lord know we seek His guidance with all our hearts.

Holy God, as the process of calling our next pastor continues, we ask that your Holy Spirit give to potential candidates the gift of wisdom in discernment as they review our Ministry Site Profile (MSP) and meet with the Call Committee; to give to the Call Committee the gift of wisdom in discernment to know which candidate best fits the needs and vision of Mt. Olive as outlined in the MSP; and to give to all of us, the people of Mt. Olive, the gifts of patience and trust, to know that You will send the right person to be our next pastor in Your good time. In Your Holy Name we pray, Amen.

As a reminder, the Call process is outlined in the newsletter and posted on a bulletin board. If you have questions, please feel free to talk to one of the Call Committee members: Kiana Adcock, Betty Arntson, Nicole Carpenter, Bruce Gunderson, Dennis Martin, Eva Schindhelm and Tim Sperstad.

“WHAT ARE THE GRADS DOING?”

This includes those headed away or remaining in the Mukwonago area. Please help us celebrate our grads in a meaningful way!

And if you have any questions, please contact the church office at 262-363-8251 or mto@mountolive-elca.net.

Holding Together... an Opportunity for Prayer Following
9:30 a.m. Worship Services

Join Betty Hinkelman for this wonderful opportunity following the 9:30 a.m. summer worship services in the sanctuary, for in Christ, all things hold together.

GATHER FAITH EXPLORATION GROUP

Summer 2024

"After certainty: A biblical guide" by the Rev. Dr. Meghan Johnston Aelabouni

Gather Faith Exploration Group: Thursday, June 13th, at 9:30 a.m., Mount Olive Fellowship Hall

Note change of date!

(Zoom link also available.) Join on the second Tuesdays of each month(except in June, 2024) at 9:30 am for our conversation and faith exploration using Gather magazine- a publication of the Women of the ELCA. Copies of the magazine and devotional will be available for all.

About the summer study: A global pandemic, political upheaval, a changing climate... these days, the future is more uncertain than it has ever been. Or is it? For the people of the Bible, life was often shaped by deep uncertainty. Encounters with God sparked awe, confusion or courage, but rarely certainty. Instead, God's people have always been called to follow God into the unknown, trusting in God's certain grace and love. This three-session summer Bible study explores God's invitation to the people of the Bible and to us, to take the holy journey beyond certainty to curiosity, community and compassion, where we find abundant life in Christ.

May/June 2024 issue

After certainty: Curiosity Jesus' ministry, during the uncertainty of the first century Roman occupation, often challenged the "certainties" of the status quo when it came to faith, power and relationships—both the relationships between people and God, and between people in community. Just as curiosity drew people to Jesus and his message, holy curiosity can still lead us to the places where God transforms "what is" to "what could be."
