A PERSONAL JOURNEY OF FAITH

When I was young, Saturday morning catechism was a regular thing for my older brother and I. I remember my second-grade nun, Sister Mary Bernadette. She was very young and beautiful and told us many Bible stories about Jesus in preparation for our first Holy Communion. At the end of our lesson time, all classes would gather together to sing and clap while Sister Anella played a fiddle. Saturday morning catechism continued through eighth grade then came Monday evening CCD classes. My relationship with God continued to grow and become a driving force in my life. Through it all, I learned wonderful stories from the nuns and lay teachers, but they never picked up a Bible to read to us.

When I got married and joined the Lutheran Church, I realized I really knew nothing about the Bible. When our daughter was in third grade she received a Bible in Sunday School. That is still the Bible I use today.

I had often thought of joining a Bible study class but didn't want anyone to see my ignorance of the Bible and question my faith. Then at Mount Olive a friendly outgoing person invited me to Sunday morning Bible study; that person was Laura Conry. I had previously seen the class going on in the library but I thought "Oh no, if I go to class, would I have to speak or worse yet look up a verse and read from the Bible!"

Finally, one Sunday I decided to sit in on the class and learned that I had nothing to be afraid of, nothing to feel self-conscious about. Everyone was very welcoming, and I could sit, listen, and learn. And learn I have. It seems we all learn as we read and discuss the chapters each week. We plan the studies from September through May, and everyone attends as they are able. We've studied Paul's journeys and his letters. We watched videos of Kenneth Bailey explaining Jewish life and customs under Roman rule during Jesus' life on earth. Last May, we ended a two-year study of Genesis...a book filled with sibling rivalry, murder, jealousy, forgiveness and God's everlasting love and promises kept."

I am looking forward to our classes starting again on September 15th at 9 a.m. We will be discussing the chapters of 1 Kings. Please consider this as my personal invitation to join us on any Sunday as you are able.

"No matter our age we're always students. There's always more to learn!"

Our envelope board is getting empty! Will you help clear the board as we raise an additional $1250 for ELCA World Hunger? It's simple!!

GRIEF SUPPORT

Grief can and does enter our lives in a huge variety of ways. You are invited to attend either one of these groups for very informal discussions in a safe place and supportive environment. INVITATION TO PRAY

You are invited to come and pray as we come together for contemplative prayer on the labyrinth. Join me for prayer with Holy Scripture using the ancient method of Lectio Divina, or you may choose to come for Centering Prayer, a prayer practice with silence as we simply rest in God's presence for a twenty-minute period of time. No experience is needed for either of these quiet methods of praying. A simple desire to be with God is all that you need to bring.

I invite you to come at any of these following times for this prayer opportunity (schedule of dates & times below). If you want to participate but need a different time slot or if you have any questions or would like further explanation, please feel free to call any time. I look forward to praying together. Betty

Monthly Schedule of Prayer Opportunities:

Lectio Divina:

- 1st & 3rd Monday of each month...beginning at 11 a.m.

Centering Prayer: 2nd & 4th Monday of each month...beginning at 11 a.m.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT & SUNDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

The Wednesday Night Bible Study are on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 – 7:30 p.m., September thru May. They will resume on September 4th at 6:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. This year's study will be led by Richard Grosenick, a gifted Bible study teacher whom some of you will remember from adult Sunday School class several years ago. (Dwight will still be there, but Richard is in charge). This year's study will be the New Testament books of Romans and 1st John.

All are welcome. It is not necessary to have any prior experience in Bible study. All that is needed is a desire to know more about the Bible, while having good fellowship and a little bit of fun. If interested, contact Dwight Cruikshank.

The Sunday Morning Adult Bible Study meets at 9 a.m. on Sunday mornings and will be studying the Old Testament book of 1st Kings this year, with special sessions in December for an Advent study. 1st Kings picks up at the end of the golden era of the reign of King David over Israel. The story continues with Solomon, who is able to fulfill his father's dream of building the temple in Jerusalem. But it doesn't stop there. Join us as we discover, or re-discover, the glory, decline, and chaos that surrounds the story of God's chosen people. Join us for a few sessions or many. You may find yourself wanting to hear the rest of the story...

Join us for the education and fellowship. Join us to just listen or to participate in the discussion. Join us for a few sessions or for many sessions. We're looking forward to welcoming you!

Contact Laura Conry with any questions.

DON'T MUNCH ALONE BUNCH (DMAB)

Come and join us when Don't Munch Alone Bunch (DMAB) meets on Tuesday, September 10th, at 11:30 a.m., at the Princess Café, 2695 Main Street, East Troy (be careful driving through the construction).

DMAB is a fun fellowship activity, inviting all ages to meet, eat and share together. Bring a friend if you'd like. There's no need to make a reservation, because we'll save a place at the table for you.

If you'd like more information, please call Glenna Gunderson. We hope you will join us.

THE KNOTTY KNITTERS...

Are a group that invites anyone interested to join them in the church library on Friday mornings from 10 a.m. to 12 noon to knit prayer shawls and such, share stories, and have goodies. All are welcome...no experience necessary. Hope to see you on Friday, September 6th!

If you have questions, please call Betty Hinkelman or Inge Adams.

LADIES BOOK CLUB

Mount Olive's Ladies Book Club will NOT meet in August. They will meet next on Tuesday, September 10th, at 2 p.m., @ Mount Olive. They will be discussing "The Paris Daughter" by Kirstin Harmel.

All are welcome...even if you haven't read the book! If you have any questions, please contact Diane Dickey or the church office at 262-363-8251.

GATHER FAITH EXPLORATION GROUP

Tuesday, September 10th, 9:30 a.m.
Mount Olive Narthex

Fall 2024

"Receiving grace: A study of Ephesians"
By the Rev. Heidi Haverkamp

(Zoom link also available.) Join on the second Tuesdays of each month at 9:30 a.m. for our conversation and faith exploration using Gather magazine- a publication of the Women of the ELCA. Copies of the magazine and devotional will be available for all.

Session one: Is grace real?

We often focus on how we fall short and deserve God's judgment. What if, instead, we remember God's continual gift of grace? God invites us to lead lives of love and wholeness. What is grace, exactly? Grace does not take away the sin and suffering of this life. Yet grace offers us a way to live from love despite hardship.

ELCA World Hunger

The Hunger Jar appreciates the jingling of our change! Starting for a new goal in 2024, our donation is now at -- $316.76. In addition, donations in the amount of $185 have been given for the ELCA World Hunger 50/50 Match.

If you are collecting your change at home for ELCA World Hunger during our time of online worship, please consider sending in a check or bringing the funds into Mount Olive so that they can be deposited. We will send them out into the world as a witness to our faithfulness during this critical time.

PRAYING FOR MEMBERS at Mount Olive Lutheran Church

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone. I Timothy 2:1

It seems to me that no one is so poor as an individual for whom not a single soul is praying, and has no one who takes him or her personally and persistently to God in prayer. O. Hallesby, Prayer

“Praying for Every Member” is sponsored by Prayer Ministry. By using this monthly newsletter insert, we will pray unceasingly for each other.
