A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR STEVE

Brothers and sisters in Christ:

Your story about faith is unique and can be shared with others. However, sometimes, it can be challenging to tell our story about faith in a non-threatening way. For this month's newsletter article, I want to explore some non-threatening thoughts about our faith that we can share with others.

Why is worship meaningful?

Worship is meaningful because it gives us a chance to gather weekly for encouragement and to learn from God's word for our spiritual growth. Our worship not only honors and magnifies God, but worship is also for our enlightenment and strength throughout life. Gathering for worship helps us develop character traits such as forgiveness, compassion, a sense of justice, righteousness, kindness, and a love not bound by conditions. Worship feeds us with God's word. We learn about love for God and our neighbor through God's word.

Worship is essential because it gives us at least a half hour each week to practice living our daily lives, strengthening our faith, and working on our ability to love God by loving our neighbor. Worship is one of the only places in the world where we can find peace, comfort, hope, and love, even when we seem to fall short of being peaceful, comfortable, hopeful, or loving.

Why is prayer necessary?

Prayer is essential because it is an active conversation that connects us with God. It is the vehicle for daily dialog with the One who creates us. Through prayer, we can share our lives with God, express thanks and praise, ask for forgiveness and healing, and acknowledge God's grace and mercy. Prayer gives us somewhere to go during all times of life, which can provide us with hope and comfort. The vehicle of prayer drives us towards being comforted by the One who has created us, which is good news.

Why is God necessary?

The God that created the universe and everything in it, including us, makes God important. The Creator wants our needs to be filled and will direct our hearts toward experiences in life that can help fill our needs.

However, sometimes, we think we can only be satisfied when we have everything we want. It is good to know that the Creator of the universe is more concerned with our needs and fulfilling those spaces so we can have abundant life. God may not be as worried about our will and our wants being filled.

God is essential; God cares about us. However, God is also important because he gives us boundaries for healthy living and a purpose to follow within those boundaries. We seem hard-wired as spiritual beings; we seem most comfortable when God is in our lives through worship, prayer, and daily living. We find importance in a God who arrives in this world to profess love, healing, and eternal life for all who believe. We find importance in living in Christ's example of love and service.

Your Faith Story Is Important!

It is hoped that this article can spark a conversation about faith or that it could reach the hands of someone trying to find language to explain their faith. Ultimately, I hope that the Holy Spirit will empower the reader in their journey to tell their story about faith to someone else in a non-threatening manner.

Peace be with you always,
Pastor Steve

THEOLOGY ON TAP

The next Theology on Tap is on Monday, February 3rd. Come and enjoy a beer, glass of wine, or a cocktail as we gather in a casual, safe space to talk about life, our experiences, and the presence of God through it all.

Theology on Tap will be a great time to build friendships in a relaxed atmosphere. The atmosphere and an adult beverage will help to talk about anything the Holy Spirit brings to our hearts. Join us on the first Monday of each month at Badger Burger in Mukwonago. Theology on Tap is open to anyone over 21. Relax with friends while discussing your experience of life and God. I hope to see you at Theology on Tap soon.

Please let Debbie know if the office if you wish to attend.
Peace be with you always, Steve Bogie, Pastor.

Worship Times at Mount Olive 8 a.m. and 10 a.m.

Our services will be livestreamed on our Facebook page, YouTube channel, and found on our webpage with a Facebook link. The livestreamed recordings will also be available for your viewing 24 hours a day, every day of the year.

COUNCIL CORNER

“Moving Through the Season of Epiphany”

I love all of the Christmas preparations, gatherings, and traditions. One of my favorite things is putting up my Christmas tree. I have ornaments from when my children were born, from their days in school, and ornaments from places we have lived and visited. I am sure you all have a favorite ornament. One of my favorites is a small brass bell I bought in San Francisco in 1979.

Ten years ago, during this time of year, my brother Don was very sick. He could no longer speak but could write us notes of what he wanted to say to us or of something he needed. One day, my sister-in-law called and said, “Do you have a bell or something Don could use to call me?” I grabbed my little brass bell and ran down the driveway to their house. It worked perfectly, and Don felt secure being able to call for help.

I still hang that bell on my tree every year. Sometimes, I walk by, shake the bell, and say, “Miss you, Don.” Then I shake it again and say, “Teacher says every time a bell rings, an angel gets its wings.”

Then comes Epiphany, the day I traditionally take down my tree. It always makes me so sad to do that job, yet Epiphany is a celebration of something joyous and wonderful. Epiphany is celebrated on January 6th, and the season of Epiphany runs until the day before Ash Wednesday. Epiphany commemorates the day when the wise men visited Jesus, the Messiah. It took them two years of travel following the shining star to Bethlehem.

Can you imagine the devotion, fortitude, and patience the wise men had to complete such a journey? In today’s world, we want instant gratification: slow internet, we get frustrated; slow driver ahead of us, road range starts to set in. Which of us would stay that focused on a single goal? They stayed focused on God’s shining star throughout the two-year journey.

As Christians with Jesus in our hearts, how can we be a shining light to others? Do others see the love of God shining out from us? God’s guiding light allows us to manifest and visualize our purpose. He guides us along our path to where He wants us to be, even though we may not realize it now.

Though the Christmas season has ended, and we continue our journey in life, let us be patient and focus on our path toward God’s shining light.

GRIEF SUPPORT

Grief can and does enter our lives in a huge variety of ways. You are invited to attend this group for very informal discussions in a safe place and supportive environment. Please feel free to call if you would like further information, login Zoom info, or have any questions: Betty Hinkelman.

The meeting is on the third Thursday of each month beginning at 12:30 p.m. Attendance is at Mount Olive in the Fellowship Hall or on ZOOM, whichever you are comfortable with. They will meet next on Thursday, February 20th at 12:30 p.m.

INVITATION TO PRAY

You are invited to come and pray as we come together for contemplative prayer on the labyrinth. Join me for prayer with Holy Scripture using the ancient method of Lectio Divina, or you may choose to come for Centering Prayer, a prayer practice with silence as we simply rest in God's presence for a twenty-minute period of time. No experience is needed for either of these quiet methods of praying. A simple desire to be with God is all that you need to bring.

I invite you to come at any of these following times for this prayer opportunity (schedule of dates & times below). If you want to participate but need a different time slot or if you have any questions or would like further explanation, please feel free to call any time. I look forward to praying together. Betty Hinkelman.

Monthly Schedule of Prayer Opportunities:

Lectio Divina:

- 1st & 3rd Monday of each month...beginning at 11 a.m.
- Centering Prayer: 2nd & 4th Monday of each month...beginning at 11 a.m.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT & SUNDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

The Wednesday Night Bible Study are on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 – 7:30 p.m., September thru May in the Fellowship Hall. This year's study will be led by Richard Grosenick, a gifted Bible study teacher whom some of you will remember from adult Sunday School class several years ago. (Dwight will still be there, but Richard is in charge). This year's study will be the New Testament books of Romans and 1st John.

All are welcome. It is not necessary to have any prior experience in Bible study. All that is needed is a desire to know more about the Bible, while having good fellowship and a little bit of fun. If interested, contact Dwight Cruikshank.

The Sunday Morning Adult Bible Study meets at 9 a.m. on Sunday mornings and will be studying the Old Testament book of 1st Kings this year, with special sessions in December for an Advent study. 1st Kings picks up at the end of the golden era of the reign of King David over Israel. The story continues with Solomon, who is able to fulfill his father's dream of building the temple in Jerusalem. But it doesn't stop there. Join us as we discover, or re-discover, the glory, decline, and chaos that surrounds the story of God's chosen people. Join us for a few sessions or many. You may find yourself wanting to hear the rest of the story...

Join us for the education and fellowship. Join us to just listen or to participate in the discussion. Join us for a few sessions or for many sessions. We're looking forward to welcoming you!

Contact Laura Conry with any questions.

DON'T MUNCH ALONE BUNCH (DMAB)

Come and join us when Don't Munch Alone Bunch (DMAB) meets on Tuesday, February 11th, at 11:30 a.m., at The Hen House in East Troy.

DMAB is a fun fellowship activity, inviting all ages to meet, eat, and share together. Bring a friend if you'd like. There's no need to make a reservation because we'll save a place at the table for you at The Hen House.

If you'd like more information, please call Glenna Gunderson. We hope you will join us.

Winter/Spring 2025: "Faithfulness in These Days"

By Denise Rector

Tuesday, February 18th, 9:30 a.m.

Mount Olive Fellowship Hall

Session Two: Psalm 22

David testifies that God is God and worthy of praise, even as David is in despair. It's no wonder that Jesus cried out to God during the crucifixion using these very words. In our worst times, this psalm gives us a way to contemplate God's holiness.

(Zoom link also available.) Join on the THIRD Tuesdays of each month at 9:30 am for our conversation and faith exploration using Gather magazine- a publication of the Women of the ELCA. Copies of the magazine and devotional will be available for all.
