A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR STEVE

"But he said to them, 'I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to the other cities also; for I was sent for this purpose.'"

Luke 4:43

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The world of 2025 has ended, and we now look forward to carrying the light of Christ into the world of 2026. I hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas celebration and that God's blessings and healing presence have filled your spirit with peace.

The holidays are not always simple. For some, this season brings reminders of loss, strained relationships, fragile health, or unexpected events that seem to come all at once. When life becomes heavy, it can be challenging to see or feel any "Good news" around us, especially during a time meant to be celebratory.

Even though Mount Olive is a gracious church filled with one-of-a-kind people, we are not immune to life's challenges. Life has its ups and downs; it is never a matter of "If" difficulty will arrive, but "When." The question for us becomes this: can the bumps in our road become fuel for something good for the church, or for Jesus' name?

Is there a way for us to tell our life story that includes faith, without pushing beliefs on others, but instead authentically sharing how God has met us, shaped us, and walked with us here and now?

We genuinely have good news to share, each of us, through our own stories of faith. As Saint Paul reminds us, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!" One of God's greatest gifts is the story of Jesus, yet even with this gift, we still encounter struggles.

God never promises an easy life. What God does promise is presence: present in our suffering, present in our questions, present in our brokenness, and present in our pilgrimage here on earth. The good news is not that we avoid hardship, but that God walks with us through every obstacle. That is God's story with us.

Telling our faith story can require courage. It takes trust. Sometimes we doubt that sharing anything about our faith can help someone else or help ourselves. Yet scripture encourages us to speak from the heart, guided by love, humility, and compassion. When we make gentle space for our faith story in everyday life, God uses it; sometimes in ways we may never see.

In the end, Jesus' story is one of amazing grace. As Paul tells the church in Corinth, we have been chosen to share this story so that we may also share in its blessings.

May the story of Jesus guide your steps into this New Year, and may your own story be fuel for Christ's grace in the lives of others.

Peace be with you always,
Pastor Steve Bogie

The next Theology on Tap is on Monday, February 2nd, 6:30 p.m., at Badger Burger. Come and enjoy a beer, glass of wine, or a cocktail as we gather in a casual, safe space to talk about life, our experiences, and the presence of God through it all.

Join us on the first Monday of each month at Badger Burger in Mukwonago. Theology on Tap is open to anyone over 21. Relax with friends while discussing your experience of life and God. I hope to see you at Theology on Tap soon.

SANCTARY UPDATE

As a reminder, we have ordered custom carpet to replace the carpet tiles which were damaged in the water leak.

Once the special-order carpet is received, we will schedule a time where the pews would be removed to allow the new carpet laid. We expect that this will take place during Monday to Friday, with little disruption to the congregation.

We expect the project to be completed in late winter/early spring 2026.

Again, thank you for your patience, flexibility, and continued prayers as we work through this situation. Please don't hesitate to reach out if you have any questions.

In Christ,
Cindy Dobberke, Council President

Free Pantry/ Kitchen Cupboard Food Pantry

Located in the lower level of Mount Olive, we are grateful for the Kitchen Cupboard Food Pantry and its ministry to our community's needy. The Pantry is open on select Thursday mornings or by appointment.

Also, Mount Olive's Little Free Pantry is located outside the lower doors of MTO and is available 24 hours a day/7 day a week. The Little Free Pantry is kept stocked by the Kitchen Cupboard Food Pantry team. Please note the items listed below and drop off in the basket marked Food Pantry, located in the Narthex: Mac & cheese boxes, potato and noodle boxes, dry goods, cereal, shelf-stable milk, granola bars, tuna, canned soups, canned fruits and vegetables, laundry soap, and deodorant.

They could use the following items: Kleenex and paper towels, hot cereal – Cocoa Wheat, Cream of Wheat, Malt-o-meal (not oatmeal), and hot chocolate mix

SERVICE TEAM UPDATE

The Service Team will be jointly sponsoring a Loaves and Fishes Meal with the AoB Team on Sunday, January 25th, for the Hope Center in Waukesha.

Looking forward to February, we will be collecting socks and underwear for the Hope Center. More details on this will be in the February newsletter.

The next meeting of the Service Team will be on Monday, January 12th, at 9:30 a.m. If you would like to join the team or have any questions, please contact Deb Barnes.

MTO WALKING GROUP

Thank you for being part of our walking group and for the joy you've brought to each outing. We'll be taking a pause until the weather improves, but I'm grateful for the time we've shared. Looking forward to walking together again soon!

GREEN TEAM UPDATE

The Green Space Team is in need of a chairperson, someone who will lead the great group of dedicated volunteers already in place as they plan events for 2026 and beyond.

If interested or you would like more information, please contact Pastor, Cindy, or Karen. Thank you for considering this opportunity to help Mount Olive carry out its mission to use our resources to connect to the community and spread the Good News!

Congratulations, Mount Olive!! We did it!!

In just 7 months, with the support of End of the Leash, we collected 1,000 pounds of soft plastics and will be getting a beautiful composite bench for our green space from Trex Corporation.

This past year, nearly 4,000 groups collected over 2.1 million pounds of plastic, which Trex recycled. Starting in January, Trex has reconfigured its community challenge recycling program. Instead of a yearly reward, they are now offering a quarterly drawing if your group collects enough plastic to qualify.

Because we have heard from so many of you that you are glad, we are doing this, and would like us to continue, Linda and Karen will sign us up for this new program and keep collecting plastic.

Mount Olive Faith Explorers: Sunday School is gearing up for another wonderful year!

Geared to children aged 3 years through 5th grade, our Faith Exploration group for the younger set continues in the month of December. The plan:

- 9:45 a.m. We will gather in the Sanctuary for lively, VBC-style music with Pastor Steve. We'll also have time to check in with each other, pray, and enjoy God's good gifts of fruit snacks!
- 9:55 a.m. or so, depending on the Sunday, we may have a song to share with the congregation. On other Sundays, we will simply return to our seats with our parents until the opening prayer of worship. Then we will head to the lower level as a group.
- Parents can pick up their children from the lower level following the conclusion of the 10 am worship service.
- Children may join our FE: SS at any time of the year. And here's an idea: bring along a friend!
- Registration forms are also available on the Youth Board, in the hallway across from the MTO library.
- We are continuing to add to our guide and assistant guides for a year of All Kids Together Sunday School. Please contact Cindy at cindy.dobberke@mountolive-elca.net or the MTO office if you would like to guide or assist our lead guides.

Thanks to our Faith Explorers for sharing their story of the birth of Christ!

GRIEF SUPPORT

Grief can and does enter our lives in a huge variety of ways. You are invited to attend this group for very informal discussions in a safe place and supportive environment. Please feel free to call if you would like further information, login Zoom info, or have any questions: Betty Hinkelman.

The meeting is on the third Thursday of each month beginning at 12:30 p.m. Attendance is at Mount Olive in the Fellowship Hall or on ZOOM, whichever you are comfortable with. They will meet next on Thursday, January 15th at 12:30 p.m.

INVITATION TO PRAY

You are invited to come and pray as we come together for contemplative prayer on the labyrinth. Join me for prayer with Holy Scripture using the ancient method of Lectio Divina, or you may choose to come for Centering Prayer, a prayer practice with silence as we simply rest in God's presence for a twenty-minute period of time. No experience is needed for either of these quiet methods of praying. A simple desire to be with God is all that you need to bring.

I invite you to come at any of these following times for this prayer opportunity (schedule of dates & times below). If you want to participate but need a different time slot or if you have any questions or would like further explanation, please feel free to call any time. I look forward to praying together. Betty Hinkelman.

Monthly Schedule of Prayer Opportunities:

- Lectio Divina: 1st & 3rd Monday of each month...beginning at 11 a.m.
  - Centering Prayer: 2nd & 4th Monday of each month...beginning at 11 a.m.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT & SUNDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

Wednesday Night Bible study meets at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesdays in the Fellowship Hall. Our first topic will be the completion of the study we began last year of the New Testament book of Romans, under the expert teaching leadership of Richard Grosenick. When that is completed, Richard will lead us in a study of the New Testament Book of Acts. That book's complete name is The Acts of the Apostles, and it is the account of the ministries of Peter and Paul in spreading the gospel. Acts was written by Luke as a continuation of his Gospel message. Richard cannot be with us in January, so we will then do a 5-week study of the short New Testament book of James, led by various members of the class who have already volunteered.

The Wednesday night class welcomes people with all levels of Biblical knowledge. You need not be a Bible "expert." Furthermore, 25% of the class are members of congregations other than Mount Olive, so feel free to invite your friends and neighbors to attend with you. For more information contact Dwight Cruikshank.

The Sunday adult education group meets from 9–9:50 a.m., between the worship services. This next educational year, we will be meeting in the Fellowship Hall (except when other activities are scheduled for that space) so that we can accommodate more people and so we can more easily have snacks or beverages.

The main topic for this coming year's study will be the New Testament book of Matthew. Matthew's focus is the fulfillment of the Old Testament prophecies through Jesus – to prove that Jesus is the Messiah. We won't get through the entire book this year, but join us as we discover, or re-discover, the Gospel of Matthew – the birth and early years of Jesus, the beginnings of his ministry, and his journeys with the disciples.

In addition to Matthew, we will also be doing some short studies during Advent and Lent. This year we will explore the Miracles and Heroes of the Bible. They both promise to be intriguing subjects, so don't miss out!

Contact Laura Conry with any questions.

GATHER FAITH EXPLORATION GROUP

Join us as we begin our new bible study!
Tuesday, January 20th, 9:30 a.m. –
MTO Fellowship Hall

"Embodied Prayer" by Rev. Liv Larson Andrews

Prayer is an important part of our relationship with God, and one of the ways we respond to God speaking in our lives. At the same time, we may carry all kinds of baggage or heavy questions about prayer: Am I doing it "right?" Do I pray enough? Is prayer always done with words? This two-part Bible study looks to Scripture as a guide to explore some different ways we can pray with our bodies—and with the body of the earth.

Session One: Praying with our bodies

(Zoom link also available.) In January, we will meet on the third Tuesday, January 20th, at 9:30 a.m. for our conversation and faith exploration using Gather magazine- a publication of the Women of the ELCA. Copies of the magazine and devotional will be available for all. Joining for the first time? Please connect with Cindy so that she can add you to the reminder email list and keep you informed of any changes in schedule.
